Paul wrote 3 pastoral letters addressing the care of the assemblies and requirements for its leaders; 2 letters to Timothy who was the son of a Greek father and devout Jewish mother; and 1 letter to Titus. Timothy oversaw the work in Ephesus and Asia Minor.

¹ Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the instruction of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope;

² to Timothy, my true son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

³ As I urged you to stay at Ephesus, when I went to Macedonia, that you might instruct some that they teach no other doctrine / no other lesson; Paul is teaching Timothy what he personally received from the risen Lord; and not a person among the first disciples of the Lord raised a critical complaint as to what he taught; Peter even acknowledging their beloved brother Paul and the wisdom given to him, in all his letters – 2 Peter 15,

⁴ nor give attention to fables and endless genealogies, which promote speculations, rather than good-sense edifying which is done by faith / regarding myths and fables, a fictitious narrative, a legendary story, by this time in history, understood as a fiction, no matter how pleasant and entertaining; and Paul who was an eye-witness to the risen Lord; he says he is not peddling little mythical events; had we been on the mount with Peter, James and John, we would have seen the same things they saw; never to be forgotten. In his letters to Timothy and Titus, Paul lets us know what he was teaching them was truth; which is why they could suffer mercilessly even in death and not deny the Lord. I do not know a college professor in the world who would die for all the fake and stuff being peddled in our science and research generation. As for endless genealogies... even in our brilliant 21st century, our scientists and overpaid news readers cover up truth. Why do 75% of British men carry the DNA of King Tutankhamun; and less than 1% of Egyptian men today have this DNA profile. Paul says, forget the speculations and quarrels about genealogies.

⁵ Now the goal of the instruction is love from a clean heart, and a good conscience, and a sincere faith:

⁶ from who some having swerved, turned aside to empty quarreling;

⁷ wanting to be teachers of the law; yet not knowing what they are saying, or insisting.

⁸ But we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully / unlike those in our congress now days for example who no longer represent the people, but abuse the law to promote their one-sided agenda;

⁹ knowing this, that the law is not made for a right man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the senseless and for sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who kill their fathers and mothers, for murderers,
