Paul wrote 3 pastoral letters addressing the care of the assemblies and requirements for its leaders; 2 letters to Timothy who was the son of a Greek father and devout Jewish mother; and 1 letter to Titus. Timothy oversaw the work in Ephesus and Asia Minor.

¹ Do not scold an older man, but urge him like a father; and the younger men as brothers;

² older women as mothers; younger women as sisters, with all cleanliness.

³ Honor widows who are truly widows / those who have lost the love of their life; treat them kindly.

⁴ If any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show good-sense at home, and repay their parents: for this is good and agreeable before God.

⁵ The widow who truly in need, and left alone, who has her hope in God, and continues night and day in petitions and prayers;

⁶ yet, if she who indulges in a lavish life, is dead while she lives.

⁷ In these things instruct, that they should be blameless.

⁸ But if anyone does not provide for his own family, especially for his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

⁹ No widow is to be enrolled on the support list: unless she is at least sixty years old, being the wife of one husband;

¹⁰ and is well known for good works like: if she raised children, was hospitable to foreigners, washed the saints feet, helped the distressed, and devoted herself to every good work / always giving her best effort to help.

¹¹ But refuse to enroll younger widows: for when their desires draw them away from Christ, they will marry;

¹² and they will receive their sentence, because they set aside their original faith.

¹³ At the same time they also learn to be idle, strolling from house to house; and not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things they should not say.

¹⁴ So, I want the younger women to marry, have children, manage their house, and give no space for the adversary to accuse.

¹⁵ For some have already turned away to follow after Satan.

¹⁶ If any believing woman has widows in their family, let her help them, and not burden the church; so it help those who are indeed widows.

¹⁷ The elders who are good leaders, are worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the preaching and teaching.

¹⁸ For the scripture says, Do not muzzle the ox that treads out the corn. The worker is worthy of his wage.

¹⁹ Do not accept an accusation against an elder, unless it is supported by 2 or 3 witnesses.

²⁰ Publicly reprimand those who continue in sin, so that the rest might fear.

²¹ I charge you before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing out of favoritism.

²² Do not be quick to appoint an elder, and share in the sins of another: keep yourself clean.

²³ No longer drink only water, but use a little wine for your stomach and frequent illnesses.

²⁴ The sins of some people are obvious, preceding them to judgment; but for others surface later.

²⁵ Likewise, good works are obvious; and those that are not obvious cannot stay hid.
