Paul knew that the zeal found in the Corinthian assembly was an example and incentive for others to give also:

What sweet victory!

Paul wanted to continue the great victories of new faith in Christ.

Principles for Giving,

¹ Now concerning the ministry to the saints, it is not necessary for me to write to you:

² for I know your eagerness, and I boast about you to them in Macedonia -- that Achaia was already prepared a year ago; and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

³ But I sent the brothers and sisters, that our boasting about you may not be empty in this case; that, as I said, you may be prepared:

⁴ lest anyone of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, that we, not to mention you, should be embarrassed by this same confident boasting.

⁵ So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers and sisters, to go ahead to you, and arrange in advance the generous gift you promised, that it might be ready, as a gift, and not as an extortion.

⁶ The point is this, the one who sows sparingly reaps sparingly; and the one who sows generously reaps generously.

⁷ Let each one do as he decided in his heart, not reluctantly, or from compulsion: for God loves a cheerful giver / and be sure, God is not overly excited about those who only want to take.

⁸ And God is able to make all grace abound to you; that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have abundance for every good deed:

⁹ As it is written,

He distributed freely; He gave to the poor: His righteousness endures forever.

¹⁰ Now the One who supplies seed for the sower and bread for food, will also supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the harvest of your right deeds and doings;

¹¹ you will be enriched in every way for all generosity, which produces giving thanks to God through us.

¹² For the ministry of this service not only supplies the needs of the saints, but also overflows in many acts of giving thanks to God;

¹³ Because of the proof provided by this ministry, they will glorify God because of your obedience and profession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generous sharing with them and with everyone;

¹⁴ and as they pray for you, fondly remember you because of the exceeding grace of God in you.

¹⁵ Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift.
