

ACTS 20 vs 1

The previous chapter ended with the town clerk in Ephesus saying: So if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against anyone, the courts are in session, and there are proconsuls: let them plead charges against one another. But if you want something else, it must be determined in a lawful assembly. For we are in danger of being accused of a riot this day, since there is no cause whereby we may give an account for this disorderly gathering. Luke is writing this,

The Ministry around Corinth continues,

¹ And after the uproar ended, Paul called for the disciples, and embraced them, and departed and went to Macedonia.

² And when he had passed through those areas, encouraging them greatly, he came to Greece,

³ and there he stayed three months. And as he was about to sail to Syria, a plot was devised by the Jews to ambush him, so he decided to go back through Macedonia.

⁴ And he was accompanied by Sopater of Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica; and Gaius from Derbe, and Timothy, Tychicus and Trophimus from Asia.

⁵ These men going ahead of us / including Luke, waited at Troas.

⁶ But we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days, came to them at Troas; where we stayed seven days / they were still remembering the 7 great Days of the Lord; shadows of things to come... three of those days are still on the Lord's agenda.

⁷ And on the first day of the week, we gathered to break bread, Paul preached to them, and since he was ready to depart the next day; and extended his words until midnight.

⁸ And there were many lamps in the upper room, where they had gathered together.

⁹ And there, a young man named Eutychus sat on the window sill, and fell into a deep sleep: and as Paul continued preaching, he was overcome with sleep, and fell from the third story, and was picked up dead.

¹⁰ But Paul went down, bent over him, embraced him and said, Do not be troubled; for he is still alive.

¹¹ So after returning upstairs, breaking bread, and eating, Paul talked with them a long time, until dawn; and then departed.

¹² And they brought the young man home alive, and were greatly comforted.

¹³ But we / including Luke went on ahead to the ship, and sailed to Assos, intending from there to take Paul: for he arranged it, thinking to go by land.

¹⁴ When he met with us at Assos, we took him on board, and came to Mitylene.

¹⁵ Sailing from there, the next day we arrived off Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and waited; and the following day we came to Miletus.

¹⁶ For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so that he would not spend time in Asia: for he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible on the day of Pentecost.
