After the prediction of troubles for Daniel's people, including the Jewish people under Antiochus, we have here: heartfelt comforts prescribed for the support of God's people in those times of trouble; be it under the time of Antiochus, or in the later days – Matthew Henry. These 3 verses complete the prophecy that began in the previous chapter when a vile politician stood up.

<sup>1</sup> And at that time Michael the great prince will stand up for the children of your people / and who is Michael? Daniel speaks of him 3 times in these last chapters. He's one of the chief angelic princes ruling in the heavens. He's the one watching over Daniel's people.

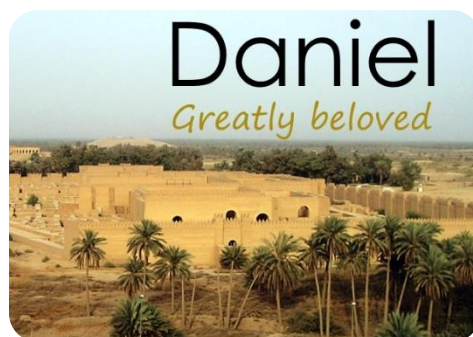

did you know it is reported in the famous sea battle of John Paul Jones against the British... during the Revolutionary War in America... when he shouted back: I have not yet begun to fight! He said the night before in a dream... he was encouraged to fight because the victory was already certain. And he said it was Michael who had appeared and told him. Apparently, Michael gets around when he stands up for his people.

On our visit to the United States Naval Chapel, Annapolis, Maryland... the center of US Naval leadership, where John Paul Jones is interred, etched into the massive stain glass window of the right transept is this story pictured... which doesn't make it true; but neither does it make it false, and one wonders particularly in this country that historically abhorred relics... why such a great expense for this building?

And at that time will Michael stand up, the great prince for the children of your people / now, is that for the House of Judah only? Or is that for both Houses: Judah and Israe? If you don't know, then just guess.

and there will be a time of trouble / this prophecy is for the time of great trouble, distress and tribulation. mentioned many times; especially in Psalms 50 when we read the LORD says, Call on Me in the day of trouble, and I will deliver you. or: the LORD says: I with him... in the trouble: I will deliver him. there will be a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time / to the time this vile politician appears. This trouble is a unique time of trouble coming. Jesus said: for then there will be a great tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now.

And here's the debate: will the people of God go through the tribulation?

Yes! Some will.

To the church, looking for the Lord, Paul wrote: I would not have you ignorant -- though most of the church in the 21st century want to challenge Paul. Who said we are not appointed unto wrath, but to salvation in Jesus Christ. the 6th great Day / the Day of Wrath and Vengeance of the Lord typified in the bloody Day of Atonement..

Those who embraced the Messiah's substitutionary sacrifice, who fall asleep in Christ know: one day, the Lord will step from heaven with a powerful voice...and the dead in Christ will rise first, then we who are alive and remain...will be grabbed up because of Jesus Christ.

For those who did not embrace His substitutionary sacrifice... for those who wandered away from the truth... like most of the churches in Revelation,: like Ephesus who lost their first love; or the lukewarm Laodiceans who thought they were rich and in need of nothing, who left the Lord standing outside their door. These verses speak to them of the awful experience: something the Bride of Christ, the Love of His life will not know:

<sup>2</sup> And many of them out of the dust of the earth will awake, some to everlasting life ; some to shame and everlasting contempt / some will awaken to life and joy and peace eternal, and some to eternal abhorrence.

/ 2 Hebrew words: sakal, those learning to be faithful, and teaching others to be faithful to the Lord; as opposed to being a fool; and zahar: meaning: to warn. The prophets use this word often. David wrote: the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired than gold; sweeter than honey... moreover by them is your servant warned: and in guarding them there is great reward.

and those who turn many to rightness as stars for ever and ever / those who have rightly led many to do is right; what the Lord asked us to do is always right; one day, they will shine brightly in God's creation; even a kid with God's help... can do that like stars shining; pointing His direction.

The Lamsa Old Testament Aramaic bible says, Those who have turned many to righteousness will shine like stars for ever and ever. They sound like pretty brilliant teachers, don't they? shut up the words / close them and seal the book / lock up this prophetic scroll, until the time of the end / so for 2,500 years these words have been closed. But thankfully, what Daniel was told has been guarded and passed forward to each generation, which is what we must continue to do... until the time of the end arrives... until the time of the Gentile nations is fulfilled!

many will run to and fro / one Hebrew word: shuwt... Zechariah tells us, The eyes of the LORD run to and fro through the whole earth... so the LORD God knows what is going on; that's good!

But we also read in Job, Satan runs to and fro through the earth... and we know he's up to NO good! .

many will run to and fro / probably paying attention to all the interesting things going on. That's okay. But swerving and turning aside... like a bunch of drunk drivers... isn't!

and knowledge will increase / the knowledge of both good and evil; nothing wrong with knowledge. We want doctors and bankers and teachers and construction workers who know their business, right?! Knowledge will greatly enlarge; it will exponentially increase... until the time of the end.

And this faithful prophet, greatly loved by God is told...

Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, until the time of the end... when knowledge / both good and evil... will greatly increase.
