Moses repeatedly reminded the people of the Lord God and His covenant of 10 commandments He wrote with His own hand; 10 and no more... which He hoped they would write on their hearts and minds... as well as teach their children; and speak about in their homes and along the way. He was not bringing them to possess a land promised to Abraham years earlier because they were a dominant powerhouse of greats among the nations; they were few in number; they were not more righteous and more upright than their neighbors; they were over-populated with stubborn jackasses at every step they made on their 40-year journey through the wilderness, so much so that the Lord was willing to destroy them and start over with Moses.

700 years later having rejected the 10 commands... as Israel prepared for Assyrian captivity, the Lord said: Though I wrote ten thousand, they are regarded as a strange thing -- Hosea 8; as Judah prepared for Babylonian captivity, He allowed them their onerous manmade traditions and said: So, I permitted them statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live -- Ezekiel 20.

But this is what Moses told the people of God... that they prosper and live long where they were to enter.

¹ If there arises among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and gives you a sign or a wonder / some captivating individual who comes with a sign – some rare event or prophecy suggesting a change of direction; or some spectacular thing that just leaves people in awe,

² and the sign or the wonder happens, what was spoken to you, saying, Let us go after other gods, which you have not known, and let us serve them / or someone or something that causes you to turn from any of the other 9 orderly commands our God wrote for us to live and prosper here on earth; to serve someone else than the Lord;

³ You will not listen to the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams / or teacher of teachers even with an Ivy League PhD after their name; including those who sound like they are more concerned about the creation than the Creator -- Esdras: 5:33 for the Lord your God tests you, to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

⁴ You will walk after the Lord your God, and fear Him, and keep His commands, and obey His voice, and You will serve Him, and cling to Him. / we thank Dr James Tour for reminding us of these beautiful verses.

⁵ And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, will be put to death; because he spoke to turn you from the Lord your God, who brought you from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of bondage, to shove you from the way which the Lord your God commanded you to walk in. So you will put the wrongdoer away from among you.

⁶ If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your heart, or your friend, who is as your own soul, entices you secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known, you, nor your fathers;

⁸ You will not consent to him, nor listen to him; nor will your eye pity him, nor will you spare, nor will you cover to protect him:

⁹ but you will surely kill him; your hand will be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people.

¹⁰ And you will stone him with stones, that he dies; because he sought to shove you away from the Lord your God, who brought you from the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

¹¹ And all Israel will hear, and fear, and will never again do such wrong among you.

¹² If you will hear in one of your cities, which the Lord your God gives you to dwell there, saying,

¹³ Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which you have not known;

¹⁴ then you will enquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is worked among you;

¹⁵ you will surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is in it, and its cattle, with the edge of the sword.

¹⁶ And you will gather all the spoil of it into the center of its street, and will burn with fire the city, and all its plunder every bit, for the Lord your God: and it will be a pile forever; it will not be built again.

¹⁷ And there will cling to your hand nothing of the cursed thing: that the Lord may turn from the fierceness of His anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as He pledged to your fathers;

18 when you will listen to the voice of the Lord your God, to keep all His commandments which I command you this day, to do what is right in the eyes of the Lord your God.

For our benefit and wellbeing to live long and prosperous in the land, we are reminded the Lord gave 10 commands, no more, no less; something even children can learn to do:

1. Do not have other gods before Me.
2. Do not make graven images or idols to bow down and worship.
3. Do not vainly speak the name of the Lord your God.
4. Keep the Sabbath and keep it holy; 6 days you will work; the 7th day is to rest and remember the Lord.
5. Honor your father and mother, that you live long and prosper in the land.
6. Do not murder.
7. Do not adulterate.
8. Do not steal.
9. Do not falsely accuse your neighbor.
10. Do not covet your neighbor's wife, or house, or cattle, workers, or anything that is your neighbors.

Deuteronomy. 5

Jesus said: Love God with all your heart and soul and strength; and love your neighbor as yourself:

do not add to it, or diminish from it.
