Notice: these several chapters 1 - 11 speak about the Covenant God has with His people: doing them they would prosper in the land. It didn't say anything more than that. Do them and prosper. There are NO bloody sacrificial laws involved with this Covenant. Faithful men and women in all ages carefully keep and do these 10 commands that they might live long, and God would prosper them.

The Lord was not lawless. He said, do not think I came to destroy the law or the prophets; whoever relaxes one of the least of the commands and teaches others to do so, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven Notice, He never said: do this and you will go to heaven. And on the first day of the Resurrection, the good news of Messiah did not change: beginning with Moses and the prophets He explained to them things concerning Himself. Jesus says loving our Father in heaven with all our heart and soul, is a perfect, good thing to do.

The death of Moses,

And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, as far as Dan,

and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the furthest sea / Wow! Moses saw where they all went; and don't you wonder, did Moses see the last days of these three tribes? We know where to find the House of Judah; they were never lost to history; but Israel was promised a new place: Ephraim and Manasseh?—Ephraim would become community of nations; Manasseh a great nation at the center of the earth. All three were blessed by the Lord God, to be a blessing to the whole world I hope these three shepherds were faithful. They should be in the news even today. Hopefully they didn't disappointed our great Savior.

<sup>3</sup> And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm trees, to Zoar.

<sup>4</sup> And the LORD said to him, This is the land which I pledged to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying,

I will give it to your descendants: I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you will not go over there.

<sup>5</sup> So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> And Moses was 120 years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his vigor abated.

<sup>8</sup> And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses ended.

<sup>9</sup> Now Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel listened to him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>10</sup> And since then, no prophet in Israel has risen like to Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

<sup>11</sup> for all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt against Pharaoh, and all his servants, and all his land,

<sup>12</sup> and for all the mighty power, and all the great terror which Moses showed in the sight of all Israel.
