The Post-Flood Epoch,

Dr. Kurt Wise, PhD, paleontologist from Harvard University suggests, the immediate violent activities around the globe, welling up from the subterranean, that shifted the earth's crust and left great effects in the atmosphere, it heated up so much water, causing a rapid descent into a global ice-age perhaps shifting the earth's poles and creating massive ice flows both to the north and the south.

¹ And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth / so He said to Noah and his family, to do what He first said to Adam; refill the earth; which only happens if it was filled before and then something happened.

Recent archeology with much interest during the 1960s, attempting to locate Noah's Ark on the Ararat Mountains, points to an area along the range in modern day Turkey... near the Persian border where this structure slid down the mountain side... due to an earthquake in 1978. It has been researched with modern equipment and reveals: massive fossilized wood ribbings, ancient metal hinges and 4 huge anchor stones and other features in an area fitting the dimensions described in Genesis 6. Local villagers have always identified this area as: The Region of the 8. Researchers are carefully excavating the region, since it has been considered a sacred place for thousands of years; where are found staggering numbers of human bones as if it was a sacred burial area which begs the question: Why here?

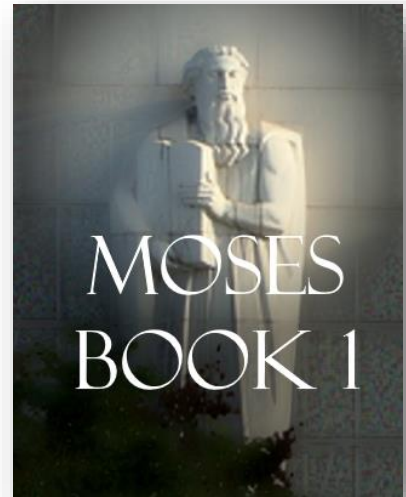

² And the fear of you and the dread of you will be on every beast of the earth, and on every fowl of the air, on all that moves on the earth, and on all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered / living in a violent environment as we do, it's hard to imagine that the largest dinosaur grazing in the Garden of Eden was a gentle critter; that even a little child could walk up and pet. It enjoyed grazing on the green leaves; Check out this: Wild Animals showing love to Humans.

³ Every moving thing that lives will be meat for you;

I give all to you, even as I gave the green herb.

⁴ But you are not to eat flesh with its life, its blood.

⁵ And surely I will require your lifeblood; from every beast I will require it. And from every man; and from every man's brother I will require the life of man:

⁶ Whoever sheds man's blood, by man will his blood be shed:

for in the image of God, He made man / just think how evil they are who promote endless warring in the 21st century, using every living hour to concoct the next terrorist event needing to be addressed; massacring hundreds of thousands, of course: at tax-payer expense; lawless sociopaths who would kill their own grandmother. God ordained soldiers who are called to protect and defend; but he didn't ordain the rogue thugs who think they are smarter than God; the paperclip crowd of criminals who will one day be dismissed into an ugly eternity not made for them, but fit for them.

⁷ And you, be fruitful, and multiply; bring forth abundantly in the earth, and multiply in it.

⁸ And God spoke to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying,

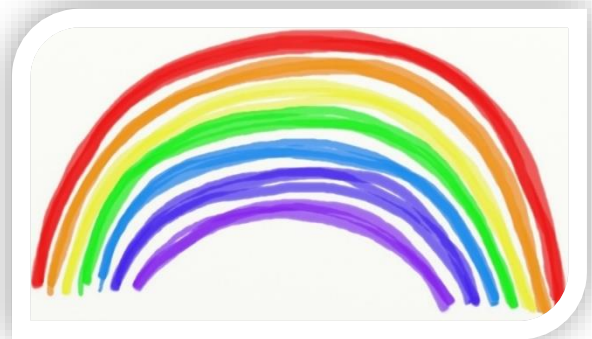

⁹ Now see, I establish My covenant with you, and with your descendants after you;

¹⁰ and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the cattle, and every beast of the earth with you; of all that exits the ark, of every beast of the earth.

¹¹ “And I establish My covenant with you and all flesh, never again to be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again to be a flood to destroy the earth.”

¹² And God said, “This is the sign of the covenant which I make between Me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations:

¹³ I set My rainbow in the cloud, and it will be for a sign of a covenant between Me and the earth.

¹⁴ And it will happen, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud:

¹⁵ and I will remember My covenant, between Me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh.

¹⁶ When the rainbow is in the cloud; I will look on it to remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.”

¹⁷ And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant, I established between Me and all flesh that is on the earth.

¹⁸ Now the sons of Noah, who exited the ark, were Shem and Ham and Japheth; and Ham is the father of Canaan.

¹⁹ These three are the sons of Noah: and from these the whole earth was populated.

²⁰ Then Noah began farming, and he planted a vineyard:

²¹ and he drank of the wine, and became drunk; and uncovered himself inside his tent.

²² And Ham, the father of Canaan, saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brothers outside / to see the nakedness of his father – has several meanings: it is the same as exposing the father's wife; so what Ham's sin is, we do not know; nor do we know Noah's failure being ruler of the living – Moses thoroughly deals with nakedness – Leviticus 18.

But consider this: in the Book of Jasher (mentioned twice in the Bible – Joshua 10:13; and 2 Samuel 1:18) we learn, the coverings God made for Adam and Eve – the basis for the golden fleece legend... were passed along the priestly line. Clearly in the Book of Jasher we are told:

Noah took them and brought them to the ark, and they were with him until he went out of the ark. And in their going out, Ham stole those garments from Noah his father, and he took them and hid them from his brothers. When Ham begat his first-born Cush, he gave him the garments in secret, and they were with Cush many days. And Cush also concealed them from his sons and brothers, and when Cush had begotten Nimrod, he gave him those garments through his love for him, and Nimrod grew up, and when he was twenty years old he put on those garments.

²³ And Shem and Japheth took a garment / obviously, Noah did not have his cover; the coverings the Lord provided Adam and Eve in the Garden after their fall, and laid it on both their shoulders, and walked backward, and covered the nakedness of their father; their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

²⁴ And Noah woke from his wine, and knew what his younger son had done / what Canaan the youngest grandson of Noah at the time did, had he been a ploy used by Ham?

²⁵ and he said, Cursed be Canaan a slave of slave he will be to his brothers / so he was the most guilty.

²⁶ And he said, Blessed is the LORD God of Shem; and Canaan will be his slave.

²⁷ God will enlarge Japheth, and he will dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan will be his servant.

²⁸ And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

²⁹ And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years: and he died.

A careful study of Chinese ideographs called: radicals... is fascinating, as we discover the most basic Chinese characters from 5,000 years ago, which reflect a knowledge of: the flood; and a big boat -- that happens to have 8 people in it; as well as many details of the Garden of Eden, with 2 people and a serpent prominently featured.
