

ISAIAH 13 vs 1

This section from chapter 13 – 23 deals with all the neighboring nations... that God used in hope to wake up Judah in her growing faithlessness... and cause her to return and rely on Him; since Ephraim and the 10 northern tribes had been resettled in Assyria 170 years earlier. Matthew Henry wrote: if God would severely reckon with those for their sins who knew Him not, and made no profession of His name; how severe would He be with those who were called by His name, and yet lived in rebellion against Him!

The people were forewarned by Moses as they entered the land pledged to their forefathers, they knew the blessings promised by God should they obey His voice, and the curses should they choose to turn from Him. The scoundrel, faithless Jacob and his capital Samaria chose to be cursed – so God said to them: thy will be done ; the citizens, especially those in the capital, were utterly ruined by the Lord's design: Syrians from the front, Philistines from behind. In chapter 10, Isaiah reiterated the charges against them:

Woe / how terrible it will be... to those who decree unrighteous decrees, who prescribe grievous decisions: such as... to turn aside the needy from justice; to take away the right of the poor; causing widows to be preyed on; causing the fatherless to be robbed --- of what? of the only thing a child has: their childhood.

Knowing this should bring insight as to why Jesus was so hated... by religious leaders of the day who wanted to kill him; and why Jesus forcefully said: whoever shall offend one of these little ones who believes in Me, it would be better that a millstone were hung about his neck, and he was drowned in the depth of the sea – Matthew 18:6.

For all this His anger is not turned away, but His hand is still outstretched / and this should give us hope, God does not change, He is a champion for the needy; the stranger, the widow and the orphan. One day, He will correct it all.

Isaiah writes...

1 The burden of Babylon / what is Babylon, it is the kingdom of rebels against the Lord God descending from the days of Nimrod and his hair-brained fools who wanted to create a tower that reached to the heavens. Now days we find the inheritors of Babylon in the clowns who created this 20th century goofy project – they call it: the New World Order... as for decades, they plan in secret and bomb the hell out of communities both small and great... throughout the whole world, as they interrupt, smash and destroy countless hundreds of thousands of lives, while they promote every sort of deviant behavior including slave markets comprised of those from the poor regions of the world; and they create the sex-trafficking of women and worse – of children... as these leaders – who are mostly childless... curious isn't it?

ISAIAH 13 vs 1

...as they protect and promote pedophiles, as they rip off the citizenry through imperious taxation policies. Yep, Nimrod on steroids!

Thankfully Isaiah tells us their days are numbered, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see / this prophecy is about ancient Babylon which was used to correct, and slap Judah awake, it was for those who saw this military action alive and in all its horror... 2700 years ago. Yet most prophecies serve a dual purpose, and this also speaks to the last global govt, Mystery Babylon – kingdom of rebels... the faithless governing system found in Revelation; so then it's also for we the people... in the future generations who will come, should we also choose to act the fool; having the thought that God might have forgotten, or changed His mind... and now calls good, evil; and evil, good. So, pay attention; see if you concur or not:

²Lift up a banner on the high mountain, exalt the voice unto them, shake the hand / more clearly Dr. Moffatt said,

Up with the signal! Shout to them loudly, gesture them to enter, that they enter the gates of the nobles.

³I have commanded My sanctified ones / I have charged my chosen army, to execute My anger, I called My mighty ones, even my proudly boasting ones / those who boast to My honor.

The Medes, or Persians / Chaldeans – those who were just given billions, were on the way (see verse 17)

⁴The noise of a multitude on the mountains, as of many people; a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathering together:

the Lord of hosts is mustering a host for battle.

⁵They come from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the Lord, with the weapons of His wrath, to destroy the whole earth / so everyone will be there, including the Deist of Eternity... who they wrongly thought was absent, and uninvolved with His creation.

⁶Howl; for the day of the Lord is near / and because there is not time to notate the many historic lessons learned 2500 years ago, history is replete with its bloody horrors; disgusting horrors – unlike the Hollywood and CIA and Jesuit dramas that our 21st century has seen, and the queasy geniuses in the careless West now know; and since our stolen taxpayer dollars paid for their dramas... check out: Syria emergency

as a destruction from the Almighty, it will come!

⁷Therefore all hands will be feeble, and every human heart will melt:

ISAIAH 13 vs 1

⁸ they will be dismayed: pangs and sorrows will seize them; they will be in pain like a woman in labor: they will be aghast at one another; their faces will be aflame.

⁹ Behold, the 6TH day of the Lord comes, cruel with both wrath and fierce anger, to make the earth desolate: and to destroy its sinners from it.

¹⁰ For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not give their light: the sun will be dark at its rising, and the moon will not reflect its light / in other words: because the world abused the Creator's kindness... in His search for men and women made in His image and His likeness, He has decided to say: lights out! Our great God is Genius! Isn't He?! He will use all the animate and inanimate things in His tool bag to accomplish His purposes.

¹¹ I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity;

I will put an end to the arrogance of the proud and lay low the pompous pride of the terrible / the ruthless.

¹² I will make people more rare than fine gold / isn't it interesting? the entire population of the world could fit in the area the size of Texas... and everyone would have their own 1000 square feet – which means a family of 5 would have 5,000 square feet.

And this verse is also interesting! The global elite have a population reduction plan to eliminate 7,500,000,000 people; and I bet not one of those money grubbing fools counted on God having His own population reduction plan. They thought they could embezzle the goods of this earth, because someone heard, God would never wipe out the rebellious world as He did in the days of Noah, and that's true; He would not send another global flood; but I guess, He decided to come and kick ass creatively Himself.

I will make people more rare than fine gold, even men scarcer than gold ore from Ophir / is this why prophet Isaiah wrote: in that day, 7 women will take hold of a man – Isaiah 4; I've always wondered if there were going to be more women in eternity, simply because in the Bible we know, the only people who wanted to argue with the Lord were men; will the faithless males be decimated? Probably.

¹³ Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth will move from its place, in the wrath of the Lord of hosts, and in the day of His fierce anger / I thank God knowing that 3 Days of the Lord remain on His calendar; this awesome, ugly day is the 6th Day of the Lord... the day of afflicting souls. Thankfully for the people of God, those who call on Him... and seek to do His will, they are not appointed unto God's wrath – we will be gone.

ISAIAH 13 vs 1

14 And it will be like chased roe / like a hunted gazelle, or as sheep that have no shepherd:

each will turn to his own people, each will flee to his own land.

15 Anyone found will be cut down; anyone caught will fall by the sword.

16 Their babies will be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses will be plundered, and their wives ravished.

17 Behold, I am stirring up the Medes against them, who have no regard for silver; and do not delight in gold / they don't have regard for anything.

18 Their bows will kill the young men; they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; their eyes will not pity children / they're deviant serial killers; so you better keep the 2nd amendment in place; we see those people, sociopaths – devoid of conscience... without scruples, today in the news... as they brutally abuse and massacre women and children.

19 And Babylon kingdom of rebels, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty and splendor of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah, when God overthrew them / only it's a 21st century sequel.

20 It will never be inhabited, it will not be lived in for all generations:

no Arab will pitch his tent there;

no shepherds will make their fold pasture there.

21 But wild beasts will lie down there;

and their houses will be full of howling creatures;

and owls will dwell there, and satyrs will dance there.

22 And the wild beasts of the islands will cry in their desolate houses, and dragons in their pleasant palaces:

and her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged. Dr. Moffatt writes: her doom is near, her days will not be long.
