

ISAIAH 15 vs 1

The people of Israel including Judah... were forewarned by Moses as they entered the land pledged to their forefathers; they knew the blessings promised by God should they obey His voice, and the curses should they choose to turn away from Him. The tribes of the northern house of Israel who chose God's curses, had been resettled earlier. From Isaiah 13 – 23, we learn of the various nations in the neighborhood God used to wake up the house of faithless Judah. God still uses the neighbors to awaken them to return to Him.

It is not a good thing for brothers... or cousins... to quarrel. Israel does not need to resemble Judah; the many tribes of Israel and where they went... welcomed the good news of the Messiah and helped carry the good news for the past 2000 years; thankfully our cousins in Judah are also embracing the Messiah. This final prophecy has not happened yet; but will as the time of the Gentiles comes to a close.

1 The burden of Moab. Because Ar of Moab was wasted and ruined in the night; because Kir of Moab was wasted and ruined in the night;

2 He is gone up to the house and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep: Moab will howl over Nebo and over Medeba. On every head is baldness; every beard is cut off.

3 In their streets they wear sackcloth: on their housetops and in their streets, everyone howls, weeping profusely.

4 Heshbon and Elealeh cry out: their voice is heard to Jahaz: therefore, the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembles within him.

5 My heart cries out for Moab; her fugitives flee to Zoar, to Eglath-selishiyah: for at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; on the way to Horonaim they will raise a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim are desolate. Surely the grass is withered, the vegetation fails, the greenery is no longer / the food supply will be decimated; the fertile valleys will be destroyed.

7 Therefore the abundance they gained, and what they have laid up, they carry away over the Brook of the Willows.

8 For a cry has gone around the territory of Moab; her howling reaches to Eglaim; her wailing reaches to Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dibon are full of blood; for I will bring upon Dibon even more, a lion for those of Moab who escape, and for the remnant of the land.
