

ISAIAH 34 notes

The short and simple about Isaiah 34:

Biblical Hebrew is either past or future tense. Obviously, the Lord knew confusion would arise if things were too complicated. Adam couldn't accomplish the 2 tasks the Lord had him do – to work and to guard the garden. But then the night He was betrayed, the Lord asked His disciples... those doing their math... including us: to keep His words; to guard them with our lives -- something not often done.

Peter said: no scripture is of private interpretation, we learn lots from how words are used: where and when they are used first, or last... or repeated. The more times the word is repeated the better we understand what it means. Sadly, the Hebrew word: lilit... is used only in verse 14. So I dare say: the Lord has a sense of humor, and might have called our number one enemy... a woman!

Daniel said: of the 4th beast that will rule hard as iron ...in Aramaic: parzel, 16 times of the 20 times; smashing and destroying until the whole world is broken. History tells us the 4th beast is roman.

Daniel and all God's people knew Psalms 2: Why do the nations rage and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth...and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against His Anointed. They sound like many now days. Let us break their bands asunder, throw away our ties to: In God we trust!

Daniel knew: He who sits in the heavens laughs. He will speak to them with His displeasure; and assign for His Son: You will break them with a rod of iron; You will dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

Three times in the great Revelation we read: He will rule them with a rod of iron (Rev. 2:27; 12:5; 19:15);

Armageddon, the perfect Justice of God.

² For the fury of the LORD is against all nations, and His ferocity against all their armies: He has utterly destroyed them, He has delivered them to the slaughter / the Lord briefly lets the world know... He is gunning for them all... which makes me wonder where His people are. Notice, the prophet fills in no gory details; that terrible battle Armageddon... warned from ancient times past.

4 And all the host of heaven will be dissolved, and the heavens will be rolled up together as a scroll: and all their host will fall down, as the leaf falls from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree / so no place is exempt; the inanimate creation of sun and moon, stars and planets will vanish. His sentient creatures do not disappear. Wherever rebellion touched it will be dissolved. Throughout scripture, the Lord God who created all things, also makes bold, provocative statements. He informs His creation of things in disorder. Life is short-term training for eternity, so the Lord God says: enjoy it, take care of it; don't overly invest in it. His students know He said one day, heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will never pass away.

5 For My sword will be bathed in heaven: Look, it will come down in judgment on Idumea -- on those of My curse / the worst of the nations; those in the news who live by the sword, and endless wars. When the LORD speaks, His words are sharper than any two-edged sword. Idumea -- from the Edomites. Mark tells us Herod the roman was an Idumean, an illegitimate ruler not of the royal lineage of David. So when the Gentiles' time ends, a leader like roman Herod will claim to rule God's people; but Messiah will quickly sort it all out, before He says, Go to Hell!.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is full of fat with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah; a great slaughter in the land of Idumea. / Edom; these words speak to a world that rejected the Lord who substituted His life; for mankind's hideous guilt; this sacrifice will be in Bozrah which is 18 miles SE of the Dead Sea,

Paul said God has not appointed us unto wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ. He tells us so we are not ignorant when the Lord steps from heaven with a shout, the 5th great Day of the Lord, the Day of Trumpets, that is next on His calendar; because who would have the love of his life see such horror? And followed is Armageddon. When the faithful are removed, there will be instant confusion Those assemblies of Revelation, who in the terror come to their senses, the few will be picked up off the battlefield and taken to heaven. Those on earth, being ignorant and overwhelmed with fear, will not even think to call on the Lord Jesus, due to the gestapo horror going on around them.

7 And the unicorns will come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land will be soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness / unicorns are not just mythical horses; rhinoceros were in the middle east. In these 4 phrases is a sequence of the blaze: 1. the unicorn, symbol of the House of Ephraim Israel, so add brother Manasseh -- both at the center of the earth infiltrated by Rome; with all promises of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, until He comes whose right it is to reign; 2. more combatants, the castrated with the bullies; 3. a battle of great carnage; 4. the fat, considered the best part... reserved as offering for the Lord... the best part was littered as dust settles on this great battlefield -- this bloody 6th Day of the Lord; the Day of Atonement. Notice the two ½ Egyptian Brothers and cousin Judah are here, they were infiltrated by the global smash and grab govt. And it seems Zechariah saw these 3 worthless shepherds, infiltrated by the roman fools.

8 For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of reparation for the dispute of Zion / FOR IT IS THE DAY OF THE LORD'S WRATH clearly Revelation 16 and 19... so the church – the Love of His Life was rescued safely in a moment, spared the horror; to prepare for the marriage supper of the Lamb that takes place. And now the 6th Day of the Lord... is in focus... the fulfillment of the Feast of Atonement – for a world that did not take to heart the substitute atonement paid by Jesus the Christ. It's payback time for Zion! The City of David; where the flock gather; apparently setting straight any of the massive confusion over Jerusalem, which will take longer than a Day to let it sink down into some ears. | remember His faithful are safe.

9 And its streams will be turned to pitch, and its dust to brimstone, and its land will become burning pitch / somewhere the Lord uses a rod of iron and deals with some folk, not a pretty sight.

10 It will not be quenched night nor day; its smoke will arise forever: from generation to generation it will lie wasted; no one will pass through it for ever and ever / and that's a long time: a smoldering memorial for some to remember... not a pretty sight, at least until the future day the Lord himself says, now kids, let's do it right; and suddenly what no eye has seen, what no ear has heard: a new heaven and earth appear, all has passed away.

11 But the cormorant and the bittern will possess it; the owl also and the raven will dwell in it: / 4 birds mentioned: the cormorant – an Asian bird, dark in color with a long neck; and bright colored patch under its mouth, its name suggests gluttonous, greedy; the bittern, nocturnal small bird with a booming squawk; the large headed owl with bulging eyes and strong talons... also nocturnal; the raven, glossy black, swift, able to plunder and devour speedily. Why are the birds mentioned? Isaiah sees 4 foul birds, what the 4 birds mean, the Lord knows and will settle scores..

In the next words, we understand the Lord is a past-Expert able to deal with rebellion, and He will extend over it the line of confusion, and the plumbline of emptiness / in Hebrew: tohu = confusion, and bohu = emptiness... using words from Genesis 1:2 the world became a waste and desolation; also when Jeremiah complained about the sirens blaring... and he asked: how long?

12 They will call its nobles to the kingdom, but none will be there, and all her princes will be nothing / I guess thieves and robbers are running the business down here... no royals to be found; and again, where are God's people? Oh, that's right! They are gone! The love of His life are Safe in His heaven.

¹³ And thorns will come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in its fortresses: and it will be a habitation of monsters and a court for owls. / in Hebrew, tannin... does this word indicate dinosaurs were around in the OT? Job knew this word: He asked, am I a monster? And a 2nd time he says, I am a brother to monsters and a companion to owls / to birdbrains, ¹⁴ ~~The wild beasts of the desert~~ will also meet with ~~the wild beasts of the island,~~ what we know is 2 groups exist, as if the world at that time had been divided, with the last endless wars govt, that is being mended thinking they can take on the Lord. Where the Lord is, He is laughing.

and the satyr will cry to his fellow / this verse is in Isaiah 13; and Jeremiah 50... definitely end time prophecies. Remember: Hebrew is past or future. Remember: Daniel calls the 4 world govt's he saw: beasts. The wild beasts of the desert = shi; the wild beasts of the islands = ai; it's a word closely associated with the Hebrew word for isle, island, coastlands; and the satyr... some demonic ruler, is that the vile politician?

The savage govt's of the desert... will also meet with the savage govt's of the island / at least that one island gone amuck... infiltrated by the fools of Rome, once greatly blessed by God, and all the nations associated with it; and if you're not sure what governments? And what island? And what desert? Just turn on the NEWS, you won't be able to miss them.

the screech owl also will rest there, and find for herself a place of rest – in death, never to rise! This is the word: lilit... Jewish analysts say: it is an ancient female demon. And it seems the Lord said: the devil — that old vaudeville dancer can go to hell! And if we look close we find a vile politician; and a false prophet, they can go to hell!

¹⁷ He divided the allotment for them, and His hand divided and measured it to them: they will possess it forever, from generation to generation they will dwell there. / so every detail of this prophecy will happen; not one detail... will be without its correlate, its companion in reality: the company of the screechy owl – that old haggard woman, ranting and raving forever! And that is a long time.
