

ISAIAH 46 vs 1

KJV-lite™ VERSES

The book of Isaiah has two great divisions; first: chapters 1–39; God's Criticism of both rebel houses Israel and Judah, thereby affecting all the local neighbors in the hood; and second: chapters 40–66; God's Consolation to both houses who have separate histories. The great Isaiah scroll found in the Qumran caves, dated from the 2nd century BC has put to rest many wild speculations about prophet Isaiah. In Isaiah chapters 45, 46, 49, 51, & 52 we hear lots of talk about salvation and being saved by the Holy One of Israel, the Savior, leading up to the chapter that orthodox Jewish leaders still love to hide from the great people of Judah, from whom would come Messiah.

¹ Bel bows down, Nebo stoops / I've wondered: did the early translators -- brilliant that they were, did they attribute a proper English elegance in their translation that was not necessary?

Bel (Marduk) is the sun god of Babylon; Nebo in Babylonian literature is the son of Marduk. Embedded in this chapter is the analogy: like father, like son... Historically and to our time, Bel is still remembered by those who promote fancy hocus pocus rituals in their churchianity; who pretend to imitate Christ, but do not. Jesus, the night He was betrayed, took simple bread and broke it; in your home, if you don't have bread, a cracker or cookie will do.

This chapter is a word picture of those busy men and women, sons and daughters... in Jerusalem preparing to flee ahead of the approaching Chaldean army. Typical as they flee, the people are grabbing all their valuables and heaping them on their animals and carts... they didn't have U-Haul rentals.

This verse could be translated:

Bel topples over, Nebo falls off the cart, their idols / and what is an idol? I remember the meaning with this anachronism: WAD. An idol is whatever the individual worships, adores and is devoted to; believing it possesses a power available only to those who worship it. The word: worship is created from 2 English words: worth + ship. So an idol is whatever best answers the questions: to what do I ship and send what is valued? What is most valuable to me or you? Now days in the 21st century most worship, adore and devotedly value: themselves.

Bel topples over, Nebo falls off the cart, their idols were upon the beasts and upon their cattle: / tied in bundles and heaped in piles on their braying asses, your cars, your carts their heavy-laden carriages were piled high – their oxen, asses and cattle, big or small, their budget movers of former times; much like today; their idols / including Bel and Nebo, they are a burden to the weary beast / an exhausting burden to the carrier.

²They stoop, they bow down together / and again, the translators were too elegant...

They topple over, they all fall down together / Joshua L. Chamberlain was a great military leader during the Civil War in America; who was a prolific journalist, fluent in 9 languages; he wrote of coming upon so many fleeing the south... on carts piled high, broken carts that could not go forward or reverse... things don't change much do they?

they could not deliver the burden but themselves have gone into captivity; / their dust collecting WAD – whatever they worship, adore and are devoted to, became their burden, not freeing them,

Listen to Me, O house of Jacob and all the remnant of the house of Israel who are carried by Me from birth, who are carried from the womb / same group, the swindlers and thieves are called to pay attention, and those few who claim they are still ruled by God = Israel. / which is fair warning to those in our genius 21st century who promote abortion on demand... the LORD God is the God of the living; He is the Giver of life, even life in the womb; so He is skillful; but He also knows how to handle the living-dead:

⁴And to your old age I Am; even to your white hairs [1] I will carry you: [2] I have made, [3] I will endure; [4] I will carry [5] I will deliver you / the Lord wants us to know, He has a handful of things He is doing; if He starts something He will finish it.

And like a good Math teacher... He asks a good equation:

⁵To whom will you liken Me and make equal, or compare Me, that we are alike? / 21st century geniuses will swear all religions are “really” the same... which only confirms they are peanut-heads and not real genius; nor do they respect the nearly 7 billion people in the world who hold a belief in God.

6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he makes it a god and they fall down, yes, they worship / it takes lots of effort and stuff to create their WAD, whatever it is they worship and adore and are devoted to; / even though it a demon inspired block of clay, wood or rock bedecked with shiny stuff; that they topple over.

7 They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place / and the Lord from his vantage point notices lots of attention made to this uh... this WAD – made from their imagination; no wonder God said, have no graven images before Me – they try to replace the Word of God with their manmade junk; this whatever it is that they set up... and then crudely attribute with power and dutifully serve for some perceived advantage, and it stands from its place will it not move? yes, one will cry to it ,yet it will not answer it will not save him out of his trouble; / yep! Still standing there collecting lots of dust, but hasn't moved an inch; one calls out to this WAD, calling for assistance; calling for 911 help; / no matter how loud they shout, that block of clay, wood or rock... that creation of their faulty imagination... will not budge, / the psalmist wrote: to the one who dwells under the shadow of the Almighty... because He knows My name, he will call and I will answer; I with Him... in the trouble... to deliver him and honor him... and show him My salvation – Psalm 91. Almighty God... is a little different than our wildly creative imaginations and manmade WADs of stuff.

8 Remember this and be assured: Remind yourselves, O transgressors / stand firm; there is none equal to the Lord God Almighty; all of you who love to carelessly step over the line; who always go beyond what is right or proper.

9 Remember the former things of old:

I am God, there is no other I am God, and no one is like Me,

10 declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, My counsel will stand, and I will do all My pleasure / God is not like the fool who says, there is no God; 1/3 of the Bible, unlike other religious book, is detailed prophecy, the Lord tells us future events with enough detail to recognize He controls history; startling events He permits; because His foes want to discredit and prove His word is wrong. God says, I will accomplish all My purpose, and gives a prophetic example:

11 Calling a ravenous bird-brain from the east / referring to Cyrus, the man who executes My counsel from a far country:

yes, I have spoken, I will make it happen; I have proposed, I will also do it.

¹² Listen to Me, you fat heads, who are far from upright / who are distant from doing what's right:

¹³ My righteousness approaches, I bring it near / in case they are myopic and have difficulty seeing clearly no one will be able to say, I didn't know; like we said at the beginning of this chapter, we hear lots of talk about salvation and being saved by the Holy One of Israel, the Savior, leading up to the chapter that orthodox Jewish leaders still love to hide from the great people of Judah, from whom would come Messiah.

and My help will not delay: and I will place My glorious Help in Zion for Israel – those ruled by God.
