

ISAIAH 52 vs 1

KJV-lite™ VERSES

www.ilibros.net/KJV-lite.html

¹ Awake, awake / Isaiah says, Wake up!

The time for snoozing is over! the beautiful City of David, an area of 12 acres just 600 feet south of the roman Fort Antonio; it is where Solomon built the first temple adjacent to the Gihon springs – the only water source still today in Jerusalem... where ancient Rome attempted to erase from finding; but God hid until recent archeological digs uncovered it; In Isaiah chapters 45, 46, 49, 51, & 52 we hear lots of talk about salvation and being saved by the Holy One of Israel, the Savior, leading up to the chapter that orthodox Jewish leaders still love to hide from the great people of Judah, from whom would come Messiah.

Awake, awake, clothe yourself in strength, O Zion / City of David, Clothe yourself in beautiful garments / Little Judah's people – hopefully ruled by God are told to wake up! this is how the prophet Isaiah said it.

Paul in his letters to the Gentiles said: strip off some things, anger, clamor, slander; and put on some things, compassion, humility, patience for one another. He wrote: But their minds were blinded: for until today... remains the same veil... which veil is done away in Christ; when any heart will turn to the Lord. Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. Learn His beautiful words, and do them; get to know Him starting with: Have no other gods before Him; discard the images... do not speak His Name lightly; remember the Sabbath; honor your father and mother that you live long on the earth! Speak truth; respect the neighbors – all perfect good things to do; these are some of the beautiful garments of rightness, Wake up! Put on your beautiful garments O Jerusalem, the holy city: from this time forth there will no longer enter into you the uncircumcised and the unclean / and Isaiah is not talking about outward appearance, but inward activity. Jeremiah later said, Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the Ephraim's house of Israel, and the house of Judah.... NOT like the covenant that I made with their fathers, when I brought them from the land of Egypt.

² Shake yourself from the dust; arise, O Jerusalem: loose yourself from the bands around your neck O captive daughter of Zion / loose the chains that are suffocating; that strangle you: the LORD wants us to get up and keep going... until we get to the place He dearly loves; to the city of peace; not made with human hands; but to the city Abraham our father searched for, whose builder and maker is God. Little Judah's people – hopefully ruled by God

³ For thus says the LORD, You sold yourselves for nothing / for zero; and you will be redeemed without money / redeemed by Messiah's precious blood.

⁴ For thus says the Lord GOD, My people went down to Egypt to sojourn there at first; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

⁵ So now, what do I have here, says the LORD, seeing My people are taken away for no good reason? Those who rule over them howl, says the LORD; and My name is continually blasphemed every day. / the Lord God is not a negligent father; His ears are tuned to those who call on Him in truth; and He also knows those who don't.

⁶ So, My people will know My name / He declares His Name: I Am... I Am the God who heals you; I Am the Banner over you; I Am your peace; I Am, that I Am = in other words: I Am whoever I need to be; I Am whatever I need to be. Yes I AM. I Am the Good Pastor. I Am the Way, the Truth, the Life. Psalm 91 says: because they know my name; they will call Me, and I will answer; I with them in their trouble:

therefore in that day, they will know that I am He who spoke: Look, I meant what I said. / both, in their day of trouble; as well as, in the 6th great day of His anger... when the time of the Gentiles ends; when the LORD says to the nations: enough; Until then He will take a break during the growing season, as He considers in His place what is next before the harvest. The whole world will know nothing was kept secret; all will know; who belong to the Lord; and all who did not!

◆ ⁷ How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the one who brings good news / the world knows only the bad news: the news of the greedy, gloom and doom; God's people bring good news,

◆ who publish peace / unlike the deep state greedy who around the clock publish death and destruction; promoting endless wars, the evidence and fruit of the agenda of the global govt of this world. Proverbs 6:16 still says, These six things the Lord hates: yes, seven is an abomination. A proud look, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises evil plans, feet that run swiftly to do evil, a false witness speaking lies; and #7, sowing division among brethren... the common activity of mankind every day.

God's people announce: peace, Isaiah already told us, peace will only come from the Child who was born, He is the Prince of peace, all others are imposters and embezzlers. Jesus said, the night He was betrayed: The peace I leave you, is not like the peace of the world... and ain't that the truth!

◆ those who bring good tidings / those who bring a brief message, a simple word that is good, in Hebrew; towb, this adjective means: beautiful, agreeable... pleasing to the eyes; sweet to taste; fragrant to smell... something the stinking world rarely provides; but something all God's people can do every day,

◆ those who publish salvation / the word is: Yeshua; = the name: JESUS. God so loved the world, He gave His very best, who is the glory of God; from chapter 1 through 66, Isaiah tells us: The LORD says... they will declare my glory among all the Gentiles;

◆ those who say to Zion, Your God reigns! / beautiful are those who remind the citizens where our great God lives; and He certainly lives in the hearts of men and women who trust Him. The angry world might be sleeping, even some in Jerusalem might be sleeping... many of God's people might be sleeping; but God isn't; and no He did not go on a vacation.

When He spoke, He meant what He said! And our genius 21st century, over-populated with very important people... who know how to text and chat and yawn... while the last brutal roman govt continues its agenda – smashing and destroying, until the whole world is broken; but who cares?

- ◆ How beautiful... are the feet of the one who brings good tidings;
- ◆ Beautiful... those who publish peace;
- ◆ Beautiful... those who bring a good message... a sweet tasting word with a fragrant smell / whatever refreshes the putrid atmosphere;
- ◆ Beautiful... those who announce Yeshua / our great Savior, the Prince of peace;
- ◆ Beautiful... those who say and remind the residents of Zion, the City of David,

Our God reigns! Hallelujah!

So, we know 5 things that are beautiful; which means we also know what is ugly; those things left undone.

8 Your watchmen will lift up the voice; with their voices together they will sing: for they will see eye to eye, when the LORD will bring again Zion / the City of David... where the flock gathers; where Solomon built the first Temple.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, you wasted / ruined, places of Jerusalem: for the LORD has brought comfort to His people, He has redeemed Jerusalem / beginning to happen in 1917.

10 The LORD has made bare His holy arm in the eyes of all the nations / He's rolled up His sleeves; and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God / will see the Yeshua of our God; and our Jewish cousins are forced to ask: who is Messiah? This same Yeshua of God who came in humility, said, they will look upon Me whom they have pierced. Zachariah asked: What are these wounds in your hands? and he says: His feet will stand that day upon the mount of Olives.

11 Depart, depart, go out from her, touch nothing unclean; go from among her; you are clean, who carry the vessels of the LORD / these words: were first spoken by Isaiah, even as Jerusalem prepared for Babylonian captivity. They were to go out singing shouts of praise to the LORD their God... who would go before them; who was going to teach the hardheaded house of Judah along with the whole world a lesson about faith and faithfulness to Him... vs. trusting in the ways of the Gentile nations.

ISAIAH 52 vs 1

KJV-lite™ VERSES

www.ilibros.net/KJV-lite.html

12 For you will not go out in a hurry, nor run in fear like a fugitive: for the LORD will go before you; the God of Israel will be your rearguard. / that means He kindly has our butts covered.

13 Watch, My Servant will prosper, He will be high and lifted up and greatly exalted / Isaiah told us more about His Servant, also named: Israel in chapter 49, / who bowed so low, taking the shitiest job in the universe that nobody wanted or could even do.

14 And many were horrified, at Him; His appearance was so marred more than anyone, and His form more than the sons of Adam / the Good News paraphrase says:

He was so abused, He hardly looked human:

15 So He will sprinkle many nations, the kings will shut their mouths on account of Him, for that which had not been told them they will see, and what they had not heard they will understand.

/ Once for all time, never to be repeated again, His sacrificial life blood completely paid mankind's debt, for all the sin of the world; His people washed in His blood will come... from every nation, tribe and tongue; some rulers, few today; mostly the early ones, some leaders of the people will have enough sense to shut up in His presence; what was kept hid from them will be evident; John wrote: these things were written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and believing you may have life in His name. Many other things Jesus did, which if they were written, all the books in the world could not contain it. All the nations have heard the greatness of our God; He will sort it out;

When He comes in great glory, the roman agenda silencing Him will be over...and some who never heard they too will slap themselves awake... and line up where the ground is level... at the foot of His Cross.

Where is Israel?

Jeremiah in Ireland

EMERALD ISLE

4 | 2

