

ISAIAH 63 vs 1

KJV-lite™ VERSES

The book of Isaiah has two great divisions; first: chapters 1–39; God's Criticism of both rebel houses Israel and Judah, thereby affecting all the local neighbors in the hood; and second: chapters 40–66; God's Consolation to both houses who have separate histories. The great Isaiah scroll found in the Qumran caves, dated from the 2nd century BC has put to rest many wild speculations about prophet Isaiah.

In this chapter we have God coming toward His people in ways of mercy and deliverance; and this is to be joined to the close of the previous chapter, where it was said, Zion, behold, your salvation comes; and here it is shown how it comes.

The Lord's Day of Vengeance,

² Why is Your apparel red, and Your garments like the One who treads in the winepress?

³ I trod the winepress alone; and from the people there was no one with Me. I tread them in My anger, and trampled them in My wrath; and their blood is sprinkled on My garments, and I stained all My raiment.

⁵ And I looked, and there was no one to help; I was astonished, there was no one to uphold / no one to lean on, no one to rest on for support:

so, My own arm saved Me; and My wrath upheld Me.

⁶ And I tread down the nations in My anger; they drank My wrath, as their strength crashed to the earth.

Confession of the ones ruled by God,

⁷ I will mention the loving kindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the House of Israel, which He has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.

⁸ For He said, Surely they are My people, children who will not lie: so He was their Savior.

¹⁰ But they rebelled, and grieved His Holy Spirit: so, He turned and became their enemy, and He fought against them.

¹² Who caused His glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses, who divided the water before them, making for Himself an everlasting name?

¹³ Who led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, that they did not stumble?

¹⁵ Look down from heaven, and see from Your holy and glorious habitation: where is Your zeal and Your strength, the stirring of Your gutsy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

¹⁶ Though You are our Father, and though Abraham is ignorant of us, and Israel does not recognize us: You, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer; Your name is from everlasting.

¹⁸ For a little while the people possessed of Your holiness: our adversaries trample Your sanctuary.

¹⁹ We are Yours: though it is as if You never ruled over us;

as if we were not called by Your name. Hoshiana
