

JOB 29 vs 1

KJV-lite™ VERSES

www.ilibros.net/KJV-lite.html

Little is known about Job, but what we do know is that Job was a real person -- mentioned in Ezekiel 14; and James 5. To help us understand what speculative wisdom was being exchanged among these 4 friends, I went to the end of the book, to hear its conclusion, and we read: the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My anger is ignited against you, and against your two friends: for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as My servant Job has. These 4 friends were clueless to what brought them together; so their guesses and rumors run freely through the pages dressed in friendship. .

endless speculations
half-true assumptions guesses, feelings
unfounded reports

Job is overwhelmed and knows least of all what happened

Job

Job's Summary Defense,

¹Job further continued his discourse, and said:

²Oh, that I were as in months past, As in the days when God watched over me;

³When His lamp shone upon my head, And when by His light
I walked through darkness;

⁴Just as I was in the days of my prime, When the friendly counsel of God was over my tent;

⁵When the Almighty was yet with me, When my children were around me;

⁶When my steps were bathed with cream, And the rock poured out rivers of oil for me!

⁷When I went out to the gate by the city, When I took my seat in the open square,

⁸The young men saw me and hid, And the aged arose and stood;

⁹The princes refrained from talking, And put their hand on their mouth;

¹⁰The voice of nobles was hushed, And they were speechless.

¹¹When the ear heard, then it blessed me, And when the eye saw, then it approved me;

¹²Because I delivered the poor who cried out, the fatherless and the one who had no helper.

¹³The blessing of a perishing man came upon me, And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

¹⁴I put on rightness, and it clothed me; My justice was like a robe and a turban.

¹⁵ I was eyes to the blind, And I was feet to the lame.

¹⁶ I was a father to the poor, And I searched out the case that I did not know.

¹⁷ I broke the fangs of the wicked, And plucked the victim from his teeth.

¹⁸ Then I said, I will die in my nest, And multiply my days as the sand.

¹⁹ My root is spread out to the waters, And the dew lies all night on my branch.

²⁰ My glory is fresh within me, And my bow is renewed in my hand.

²¹ Men listened to me and waited, And kept silence for my counsel.

²² After my words they did not speak again, And my speech settled on them as dew./
Apparently none of his friendly accusers knew this or took this into consideration when addressing Job.

²³ They waited for me as for the rain, And they opened their mouth wide as for the spring rain.

²⁴ If I mocked at them, they did not believe it, And the light of my countenance they did not throw down.

²⁵ I chose the way for them, and sat as chief; So I dwelt as a king in the army, As one who comforts mourners.
