Here is a highly speculative footnote to this verse.

17 Jesus said unto her, Do not touch Me; for I have not yet ascended to My Father.

Consider this: Did Jesus have an activity still needed to do as our High Priest? Sacrifices were made in the outer court; only the High Priest could enter into the Holy of holies... with evidence of the blood sacrifice.

So when, as our High Priest did Jesus do that? When did that occur? Since we read later that they were touching Him.

From the Qumran Caves, Fragment #4Q405 - The Songs of the Sabbath Sacrifice... were only translated in 1985. The final Song, the fragments clearly read... using a specific Hebrew phrase about the High Priest... that is only referenced in Exodus 28 and 39.

On page 333 of Harvard Semitic Studies 27, the 13-line text translation on fragile fragments in broken pieces, reads:

Line 1. the beauty of the engravings of...
Line 2. ... the King, when they served before
Line 3. King, and He inscribed His glory...
Line 4. holiness, the sanctuary of all...
Line 5. their ephodim (warrior garments) they spread out ...
Line 6. holy ones ... good favor ... spirits of the holy ones...
Line 7. their holy places... many colors, like woven work, engraved with figures of splendor.

And next, is the verse of interest:

Line 8. In the midst of the glorious appearance of Scarlet, the colors of most Holy light, they stand firm in their holy station before...

Now, don't you want to know... before Whom?!

This fragment from antiquity, only translated in 1985, speaks of:

this sanctuary of all, and therein, suddenly appears this King... the center of attention, gloriously appearing... in red!

This Song of Sabbath Sacrifice, in lines 9 through 13, continues:

King of holiness and His glorious kingdom... to praise the God of knowledge together with all His glorious words...
the God who knows all things...
His insightful knowledge and in His glorious wisdom !

John writes...

Jesus said to her: Do not touch Me; for I have not yet ascended to My Father,

but go to My brothers, and say to them,

I ascend to My Father, and your Father;

and to My God, and your God.

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples / : mathetes... those doing their math,

that she saw the LORD,

and He said these things to her.

You know, in the meantime, it sounds like Jesus was quite busy. Apparently, He still had a couple of things to do before... He sat down.

HALLELUJAH

This is My Father's World

JESUS it is YOU
