You might be surprised to learn that several accounts exist stating that a large fish swallowed a person. Check out this short story of James Bartley, a sailor off the shores of the Falkland Islands in the early 1900s. ASKSmithsonian Could a whale swallow a person?

2 Kings14 says, Jonah was not only a real person but a qualified prophet from a little town near Nazareth. Matthew records: Jesus the Christ who spoke of Jonah's experience three days and three nights in the belly of a large fish, as a matter of fact – Matthew 12.

And this brief book of 4 short chapters, reads as a simple historical account of an incredible event and what followed in the Assyrian capital.

Jonah's tomb has been recognized by the local peoples for millennia; and only in recent years under the Obama / HRC administration, were US taxpayer dollars used to create and support ISIS and destroy the ancient middle east relics of the church of the living God.

The Prayer of Jonah

¹ Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside the fish,

² and said, I called to the LORD in my distress; and He answered me; from the belly of hell I cried for help, and You heard my voice.

³ For You had thrown me into the deeps, into the heart of the seas; and the currents overcame me: all Your billows and breakers passed over me.

⁴ So I said, I am banished from Your sight; yet I will look again toward Your holy temple.

⁶ I sank to the foundation of the mountains; the earth with its prison bars enclosed me forever: yet You raised up my life from the pit, O LORD my God.

⁷ While my life was fading within me, I remembered YHWH: and my prayer came to You, to Your holy temple.

⁸ Those who cling to vain idols lying forsake their own faithfulness.

⁹ But I will sacrifice to You with a voice of thanksgiving; I will pay what I have vowed.
