The book of Leviticus ends with building the first temple in Jerusalem. More than 50 times in this book, we read the Lord spoke to Moses; and they built the temple according to the pattern God gave to Moses. And what is written here is for the benefit of all Israel, literally all who are ruled by God.

The Grain Offering,

<sup>1</sup> When anyone offers a grain offering to the Lord, his offering will be of fine flour. And he will pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it. <sup>2</sup> He will bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests, one of whom will take from it his handful of fine flour and oil with all the frankincense. And the priest will burn it as a memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the Lord. <sup>3</sup> The rest of the grain offering will be Aaron's and his sons. It is most holy of the offerings to the Lord made by fire.

<sup>4</sup> 'And if you bring as an offering a grain offering baked in the oven, it will be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. <sup>5</sup> But if your offering is a grain offering baked in a pan, it will be of fine flour, unleavened, mixed with oil. <sup>6</sup> You will break it in pieces and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

<sup>7</sup> 'If your offering is a grain offering baked in a covered pan, it will be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>8</sup> You will bring the grain offering that is made of these things to the Lord. And when it is presented to the priest, he will bring it to the altar. <sup>9</sup> Then the priest will take from the grain offering a memorial portion, and burn it on the altar. It is an offering made by fire, a sweet aroma to the Lord. <sup>10</sup> And what is left of the grain offering will be Aaron's and his sons'. It is most holy of the offerings to the Lord made by fire.

<sup>11</sup> No grain offering which you bring to the Lord will be made with leaven, for you will burn no leaven nor any honey in any offering to the Lord made by fire. <sup>12</sup> As for the offering of the firstfruits, you will offer them to the Lord, but they will not be burned on the altar for a sweet aroma. <sup>13</sup> And every offering of your grain offering you will season with salt; you will not allow the salt of the covenant of your God to be lacking from your grain offering. With all your offerings you will offer salt.

<sup>14</sup> If you offer a grain offering of your firstfruits to the Lord, you will offer for the grain offering of your firstfruits green heads of grain roasted on the fire, grain beaten from full heads. <sup>15</sup> And you will put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it. It is a grain offering. <sup>16</sup> Then the priest will burn the memorial portion: part of its beaten grain and part of its oil, with all the frankincense, as an offering made by fire to the Lord.
