Dr. Luke continues to write about Jesus speaking to a large crowd who gathered around Him, and said...

37 And as He was speaking, a Pharisee asked Him to dine with him: and He went in, and reclined at the table.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that Jesus had not first ritually washed before dinner.

39 And the Lord asked him, Why do you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but inside you are full of greed and wrongdoing.

40 You fools, did not the One who made the outside, make the inside also?

41 But give from what you have within to the poor; and indeed, everything will be clean for you.

42 Woe / how terrible it will be to you, Pharisees! for you give a tenth of mint, rue and all kinds of herbs, and bypass justice and love for God:

these things you ought to do, and not leave the other undone.

43 Woe / how terrible it will be to you, Pharisees! for you love the front seat in the synagogues, and all the laudatory greetings in the markets.

44 Woe / how terrible it will be to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! / concealing what is, while appearing what is not, for you are like unmarked graves, and those who walk over them are not even aware of them.

45 Then sizing up the situation, one of the experts of the law said to Him, Teacher, saying thus, You insult us also.

46 And Jesus said, Woe / how terrible it will be to you also, you lawyers! / you experts of the law, for you load people with burdens too grievous to carry, yet you yourselves do not touch these burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe / how terrible it will be to you! for you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 So truly you are witnesses that you approve the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.

<sup>49</sup> For this reason, the wisdom of God said, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and persecute:

<sup>50</sup> so that this generation is held responsible for the bloodshed of all the prophets, since the foundation of the world;

<sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias / from A to Z, first to last all who perished between the altar and the temple: Amen, I say to you, It will be required of this generation.

<sup>52</sup> Woe / how terrible it will be to you, lawyers! / experts of the law, for you have taken away the key of knowledge: you did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering, you hindered / Jesus affirms a scouring indictment on the master teachers and educated elite who failed at their assignment in every generation; it won't go well for them.

<sup>53</sup> And when He left there, the scribes and Pharisees began to oppose Him vigorously, and to provoke Him to speak on many things:

<sup>54</sup> to ambush Him, seeking to entrap Him with something He said, that they might accuse Him.
