This Tuesday night of Passover, when Jesus, the Lamb of God was betrayed, the first of seven days that specially belong to the Lord; seven days that Moses told us all about it -- Leviticus 23: having sung a hymn... they went to the Mount of Olives as was their custom, and we read,

47 And while He was speaking, See, suddenly a large mob, and the one named Judas, one of the twelve, went before them / notice he was in front of the crowd; he wanted to give the appearance he was being followed, and approaching Jesus, kissed Him / clearly, it was his signal in the darkness, which one was Jesus.

48 But Jesus asked him, Judas, do you really betray the Son of Man with a kiss?

49 When those who were around Him saw what had happened, they said to him, Lord, should we strike with the sword? / and before He could answer, the impulsive one whips his out.

50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered / sizing up the situation... and said, Stop, no more.

And He touched his ear, and healed him.

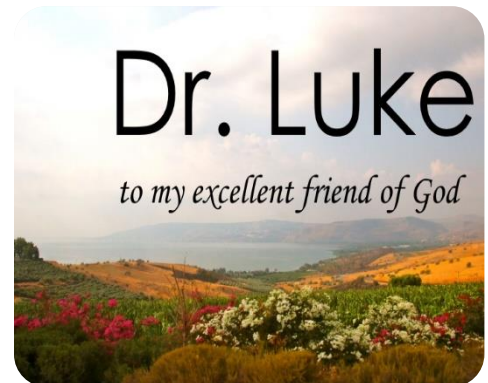

52 Then Jesus asked the chief priests and officers of the temple, and the elders who came out to Him, Have you come out with swords and clubs, as against a thief?

53 When I was with you daily in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me: but this hour and the power of darkness is yours.

54 Then they seized Him, and led Him away, and brought Him to the house of the high priest. And Peter followed at a distance.

55 And when they lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and sat down together, then Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain servant-girl saw him sitting by the fire, and intently watching him, said, This man was with Him also.

⁵⁷ But he denied it, saying, Woman, I do not know him.

⁵⁸ And a little later, another saw him and said, You are one of them.

And Peter said, Man, I am not.

⁵⁹ And about an hour later, another insisted, saying, Certainly this man was also with Him: for he is a Galilean / his accent gives him away.

⁶⁰ But Peter said, Man, I do not know what you are talking about. And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

⁶¹ And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.

⁶² And Peter went out, and wept bitterly / and as Dr. Edersheim of Oxford University often said; this is not how we tell fabulous fables; so weak and unembellished.

⁶³ And the men that held Jesus / in custody... mocked Him, and beat Him.

⁶⁴ And when they blindfolded Him, they hit Him on the face, and asked Him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that hit you? / they so abused Him, He hardly looked human – Isaiah 52.

⁶⁵ And many other things they blasphemously said against Him.

Christ, the Messiah of God, before the Sanhedrin

⁶⁶ And when it was daylight, the Council of the elders of the people assembled; both chief priests and scribes / all the religious VIPs were there, and led Him away demanding,

⁶⁷ Are You the Christ? tell us. And He said to them, If I tell you, you will not believe:

⁶⁸ and if I ask you a question, you will not answer Me, nor let Me go.

⁶⁹ But from now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.

⁷⁰ Then they all asked, Are You the Son of God? And He said, What you said, I am.

⁷¹ And they said, What further testimony do we need? For we heard it ourselves from His own mouth.
