Matthew was an eyewitness to Jesus next he writes about what he remembered happened after Jesus honored His disciples with the knowledge they would be given the keys of the kingdom, and have the tools to lock or unlock the things that pertain to the things of God..

1 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, James, and John his brother, and brings them alone to a high mountain,

2 And was transfigured before them: and His face shined as the sun, and His raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah talking with Him.

4 Then Peter answered, and said to Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if it is Your will, let us make here three tabernacles; one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

5 While he yet spoke, indeed, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice from the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear Him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were very much afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, do not be afraid.

8 And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus.

9 And as they descended the mountain, Jesus instructed them, saying, Tell the vision to no one, until the Son of Man rises again from the dead.

10 And His disciples asked Him, saying, Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?

11 And Jesus answered and said to them, Elijah truly will come first, and restore all things.

12 But I say to you, That Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but have done to him whatever they desired. Likewise the Son of Man will also suffer by them.

13 Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them of John the Baptist.

14 And when they returned to the multitude, there came a certain man to Him, kneeling down before Him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is a lunatic, and very troubled: for often he falls into the fire, and frequently into the water.
