In the preface to this Book of Moses we read: The titles of the five books of Moses, which we use in our Bibles, are all borrowed from the Greek translation of the Seventy, the most ancient version of the Old Testament what we know of. But the title of this book we only turn into English; in all the rest we retain the Greek word, for which difference I know no reason, but that the Latin translators have done the same. Otherwise this book might as well have been called: Arithmoi. Where we get our word: arithmetic. The Greek title = the numbering; as it shows the promise of God to Abraham that his children would be as the stars of heaven. In this book are two numberings: one at Mount Sinai in Arabia – chapter 1; and the other on the plains of Moab 39 years later. -- Matthew Henry.

The Aaronic priesthood, Aaron's rod budded

¹ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

² Speak to the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their leaders according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write you every man's name on his rod.

³ And you write Aaron's name on the rod of Levi: for one rod will be for the head of the house of their fathers.

⁴ And you place them in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I will meet with you.

⁵ And it will happen, that the rod of the man, who I will choose, will blossom. Thus I will lessen the grumblings of the children of Israel, who are grumble against you.

⁶ And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and all their leaders gave him a rod, one for each ruler, according to their fathers' houses, twelve rods: with the rod of Aaron among their rods.

⁷ And Moses placed the rods before the LORD in the tent of witness.

⁹ And Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel: and they looked, and each man took his rod.

¹⁰ But the LORD said to Moses, Place the rod of Aaron again before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels;

that you may put away their grumbings against Me, so that they do not die.

¹¹ Thus Moses did: just as the LORD commanded him, so did he.

¹² Then he children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

¹³ Whoever comes near to the tent of the LORD must die. Are we to perish completely?
