In the preface to this Book of Moses we read: The titles of the five books of Moses, which we use in our Bibles, are all borrowed from the Greek translation of the Seventy, the most ancient version of the Old Testament what we know of. But the title of this book we only turn into English; in all the rest we retain the Greek word, for which difference I know no reason, but that the Latin translators have done the same. Otherwise this book might as well have been called: Arithmoi. Where we get our word: arithmetic. The Greek title = the numbering; as it shows the promise of God to Abraham that his children would be as the stars of heaven. In this book are two numberings: one at Mount Sinai in Arabia – chapter 1; and the other on the plains of Moab 39 years later. -- Matthew Henry.

The laws of inheritance; the commission of Joshua,

¹ Then the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph came near: and these are the names of his daughters; Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

² And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the leaders and all the assembly, by the doorway of the tent of meeting, saying,

³ Our father died in the wilderness, yet he was not in the assembly of those who gathered themselves against the LORD in the company of Korah; but he died in his own sin, and had no sons.

⁴ Why should the name of our father be withdrawn from among his family, because he had no son? Give us a possession among the relatives of our father.

⁵ And Moses brought their cause before the LORD.

⁶ And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

⁷ The daughters of Zelophehad are right in what they speak: you will surely give them a possession of inheritance among their father's relatives; and you will transfer the inheritance of their father to them.

⁸ Moreover, you speak to the children of Israel, saying, If a man dies, and has no son, then you will transfer his inheritance to his daughter.

⁹ And if he has no daughter, then you will give his inheritance to his brothers.

¹⁰ And if he has no brothers, then you will give his inheritance to the brothers of his father.

¹¹ And if his father has no brothers, then you will give his inheritance to his kinsman who nearest to him of his family, and he will possess it: and it will be to the children of Israel a statute of judgment, as the LORD commanded Moses.

¹² Then the LORD said to Moses, Go up to this mountain of Abarim, and see the land which I have given to the children of Israel.

¹³ And when You have seen it, you also will be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother was.

¹⁴ For in the wilderness of Zion, during the strife of the assembly, you rebelled against My command, to treat Me as holy before their eyes at the water: (that is the water of Meribah in Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin).

¹⁵ And Moses spoke to the LORD, saying,

¹⁶ May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set a man over the assembly,

¹⁷ who will go out and enter in before them, and who will lead them out, and bring them in; that the assembly of the LORD be not like sheep which have no shepherd.

¹⁸ And the LORD said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and lay your hand on him;

¹⁹ and have him stand before Eleazar the priest, and before all the assembly; and commission him in their sight.

²⁰ And you will put some of your authority on him, that all the assembly of the children of Israel may obey him.

²¹ Then he will stand before Eleazar the priest, who will enquire for him by the judgment of the Urim before the LORD. At his command they will exit, and at his command they will enter, he and all the children of Israel with him, even all the assembly.

²² And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua, and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the assembly:

²³ and he laid his hands on him, and commissioned him, as the LORD spoke through Moses.
