Paul was a good teacher; in Galatians, we learn he was taught 3 years, then 14 more years directly from the Lord. The Book to the Romans is the grand manifesto of God... against all that is Mystery Babylon in the last days: the time of the 3 days of the Ingathering, shadows of things to come still on the Lord's calendar waiting fulfillment. Moses told us the sons of Joseph: Ephraim will become a great community of nations; and Manasseh a great nation.

Paul said in Romans chapter 12, we often need to change our mind and reject those who peddle fake love and hocus pocus; but always cling to what is good and right; preferring one another.

<sup>1</sup> Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God / thankfully we live under a constitutional power; and those who despise the primary constitutional rights of We The People of the United States, are likely advocates for the last lawless world govt smashing and destroying until the whole world is broken. Under our constitution, the PEOPLE have the POWER; WE the PEOPLE give authority to govern to our representatives; while as far as possible we live peacefully with all mankind.

James Madison was the principal author of the US Constitution. Unlike Thomas Jefferson who attended William and Mary College, James Madison attended what became Princeton University, and was exposed to the Calvinism Reformation, and he recognized: 1. the Sovereignty of God, to whom all creation owes allegiance; so there must be religious freedom; and he also knew: 2. The depravity of man, so absolute power corrupts absolutely, based on Madison's understanding of Reformation theology.

In 1550, inspired by Martin Luther, the pastors in Magdeburg Germany drew up The Confession of Faith addressing Roman's 13: the right to resist government should the Emperor not serve to benefit the people.

Yes, political authorities were appointed by God to do good. But if they are not doing good, they must not have been appointed by God. Yes, we must render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's, but if Caesar wants or takes what is God's, then we must withhold or retrieve it for the sake of God. Yes, he who resists the authorities, resists God. But if the authorities resist God, then surely we must avenge God's honor. – Magdeburg Confession.

In the world God created, He gave 4 entities to defend the family and the individual; maintaining order in society: 1. our conscience; 2. A father and mother raising their children to do what is right; 3. a govt to police and protect; and 4 the teachers in the church to instruct and inform in the ways of God. If any of these 4 entities begin to erode the standards of society, that nation will be in jeopardy to even exist.

When a government no longer protects the people, they forfeit their authority to govern. When a govt unleashes dictators laying aside the primary rights of the PEOPLE instead of representing THE PEOPLE, they forfeit their authority and can be ignored. ## Amendment #1

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances

And notice which primary right came first, and it was not free speech, or the press. Only a fool thinks they can jump over the first to get to the second, third or fourth part of the first Amendment.

Amendment #2

A well-regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms, shall not be infringed.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore, whoever resists the power / the authorities in place; in our case; whoever resists those who uphold the Constitution of the United States, resists what God ordained: and those who resist will bring justice on themselves.

<sup>3</sup> For the rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Do you desire then not to fear the authorities? Do what is good, and you will have praise from them:

<sup>4</sup> for government is a servant of God for your good / by the way, releasing criminals to bring harm in the community is not evidence of a servant of govt doing good; sinister fools can be ignored.

but if you do what is wrong, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword in vain: for it is a servant of God, an avenger that executes wrath on the one who does wrong / to guard the state has the right to deal with the most ruthless, and bear weapons against those doing evil; which is different than some fool in govt who comes up with some agenda to murder babies in the womb by the thousands; while promoting drunks and gangs to riot and destroy, calling those actions necessary; while discriminating against the church, not allowing them to enjoy their first amendment right to assemble peacefully; that irrational fool of a govt official can be ignored, and sued in a court of law.

The RIGHT Side of history

<sup>5</sup> Therefore it is necessary to be subject, not only by reason of wrath, but also by reason of conscience. <sup>6</sup> For this cause you also pay taxes: for they are God's servants, devoted to these things.

<sup>7</sup> Render to all their dues: tax to whom tax is due; custom to whom custom is due; respect to whom are respectable; and honor to whom are honorable.

<sup>8</sup> Owe no one anything, but to love one another: for he who loves another, has fulfilled the law.

<sup>9</sup> For this reason, do not adulterate, do not murder, do not steal, do not falsely accuse, do not covet; and if there is any other instruction in the word, it is summed up in the saying:

you will love your neighbor as yourself.

<sup>10</sup> Love does no wrong to his neighbor / especially to the unborn: so love completes the law.

<sup>11</sup> And do this knowing the time, that it is already the hour for you to wake up from sleep: for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed.

<sup>12</sup> The night is nearly over, the day approaches: so, let us discard deeds of darkness, and put on the armor of light. / there is a day coming when all will stand before the Creator.

<sup>13</sup> As in the daylight, let us walk properly; not as carousing drunks, not depraved and unrestrained, not in rebellion and envying.

<sup>14</sup> But put on the Lord Jesus Christ,

and make no plans for the flesh, to satisfy its strong desires.

The book of Romans was written to the early church in Rome: keep in mind the people met in homes where they were taught by Paul. This book of Romans -- Inspired by the Spirit, is just what the Lord thought those in Rome needed to know. In its Chapters we learn no hocus pocus needed to ascend to heaven, or descend to the pit to bring up Christ. The word is near us, even in our mouth; if you confess Jesus as Lord and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead you will be saved.

Paul like John in his Gospel, both say nothing about the bread and wine; as if it is not a high priority. In this book to the church in Rome, Paul makes no mention of communion, no Eucharist; he did not mention transubstantiation, or consubstantiation. Paul did not refer to prayer beads, nor did he make any remark to wear special robes or collars or hats. Nothing about lighting candles.

No mention of Mary. No reference of some mother of God. Definitely No queen of heaven – Prophet Jeremiah in chapters 44 took care of that demonic worship 500 years earlier. He has no papal bull crap to be concerned about: though he does thank God through Jesus Christ for all the faithful ones at that time in Rome.

So what happened? Did someone not led by the Spirit of God, not called up to the 3rd heaven, come after Paul with some hocus pocus news Paul forgot to tell Rome? YES. Criminals of hocus pocus in later years came who wanted to add confusion to Paul, let them be accursed; let them be as vessels worthy of the wrath of God, who sacrifice offerings to demons.
