PSALM 72 VS 1

KJV-lite™ VERSES

Title: A Psalm of Solomon, it is certain that the title declares Solomon to be the author of the Psalm, and yet from verse 20 it seems David uttered it in prayer before he died. Perhaps, Solomon caught his father's dying song and fashion it into a good verse, and without robbing his father, made the Psalm his own. It is the Prayer of David, and the Psalm of Solomon.

Título: Salmo de Salomón, es cierto que el título declara que Salomón es el autor del Salmo, y sin embargo, según el versículo 20, parece que David lo pronunció en oración antes de morir. Quizás, Salomón captó la canción moribunda de su padre y la convirtió en un buen verso, y sin robar a su padre, hizo suyo el Salmo. Es la Oración de David y el Salmo de Salomón.

Division: We will follow the division suggested by Alexander: a glowing description of the reign of Messiah as righteous (1-7); universal (8-11); beneficent (12-14); and perpetual (15-17); to which are added a doxology (18-19); and a postscript (20) – Charles Spurgeon.

Psalm of Solomon.

1 O God, give the king Your judgments, and Your righteousness to the son of the king.

2 He will judge Your people with righteousness, and Your poor with justice.

3 Let the mountains bring peace to the people, and the little hills, righteousness.

4 He will judge the poor of the people, he will save the children of the needy, and will break in pieces the oppressor.

5 They will fear You as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.

6 He will descend like rain on the mown grass: like showers that water the earth.

7 In His days may the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace till the moon is no more.

Think about it: 3 working Days are still on His calendar; Messiah will come and take care of business.

División: Seguiremos la división sugerida por Alejandro: una descripción brillante del reinado del Mesías como justos (1-7); universal (8-11); benéfico (12-14); y perpetuo (15-17); A lo que se añade una doxología (18-19); y una posdata (20) - Charles Spurgeon.

Salmo de Salomón.

1 Oh Dios, da al rey tus juicios y tu justicia al hijo del rey.

2 El juzgará a tu pueblo con justicia, y a tu pobre con justicia.

3 Que las montañas traigan paz a la gente, y las pequeñas colinas, justicia.

4 Juzgará a los pobres de la gente, salvará a los hijos de los necesitados y quebrantará al opresor.

5 Te temerán mientras duren el sol y la luna, durante todas las generaciones.

6 Descenderá como lluvia sobre la hierba cortada, como lluvias que riegan la tierra.

7 En sus días que el justo florezca; y abundancia de paz hasta que la luna ya no exista.

Piénselo: aún quedan 3 días hábiles en su calendario; El Mesías vendrá y se hará cargo de los negocios.

8 And He will have dominion from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.

9 Let those of the wilderness bow before Him; and His enemies lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles will bring tributes: the kings of Sheba and Seba will offer gifts.

11 Yes, all kings will fall down before Him; all nations will serve Him.

Think about it: We are reliably told, He will rule the nations with a rod of iron. So I bet they will fall quickly.

Piénsalo: se nos dice confiablemente: Él regirá a las naciones con una vara de hierro. Así que caerán rápidamente.

12 For He will deliver the needy when he cries; the poor also, and him who has no helper.

13 He will have compassion on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy He will save.

14 From oppression and violence He will redeem their souls: and precious is their blood in His sight.

Think about it: We are told, He will rule the nations with a rod of iron. So I bet they are very precious to Him.

Piénsalo: se nos dice: Él regirá a las naciones con una vara de hierro. Yo apuesto que son preciosos para Él.

15 And He will live, and will be given to Him the gold of Sheba: and prayer will be made for Him continually; and daily He will be praised.

16 There will be an abundance of grain in the earth on the top of the mountains; its fruit will wave like Lebanon: and may those of the city flourish like grass of the earth.

17 His name will endure forever: as long as the sun continues: and all will be blessed in Him: all nations will call Him blessed.

Think about it: It makes you want to shout: Hallelujah!

Piénsalo: te dan ganas de gritar: ¡Aleluya!

PSALM 72 VS 1

18 Kneel before the LORD God, the God of Israel, who only does wondrous things.

19 And kneel to His glorious name forever: and let the whole earth be filled with His glory; Amen, and Amen.

Think about it: Both Isaiah in the OT and Paul in the NT tell us: One day, every knee will bow, and every tongue will confess that Jesus is Lord to the glory of God the Father.

20 Ended are the prayers of David the son of Jesse.

18 Arrodíllate ante el SEÑOR Dios, el Dios de Israel, que solo hace maravillas.

19 Y arrodíllate ante Su glorioso nombre para siempre, y llénate toda la tierra de Su gloria; Amén y Amén.

Piénselo: tanto Isaías en el AT como Pablo en el NT nos dicen: un día, toda rodilla se doblará, y cada lengua confesará que Jesús es el Señor para la gloria de Dios el Padre.

20 Acabadas son las oraciones de David, el hijo de Isaí.
