

THE SONG OF SOLOMON vs 5

KJV-lite™ VERSES

www.ilibros.net/KJV-lite.html

This book: has had several different titles, in Hebrew: the Song of Songs, meaning, the greatest Song, in English, The Song of Solomon identifying his author; and in Roman Latin, the Canticles. Some say this song is about Solomon's favorite wife, and there is no reason not to ascribe it to him; others suggest the book is merely an allegory; with fictional characters describing heavenly truths. Perhaps it is both. The song describes the love Solomon has for a Shulamite woman, the king comes in disguise to her family vineyard, he wins her heart, and makes her his bride. It definitely is a sexy song, so see what you learn from it.

The Bride Praises the Bridegroom,

¹ I have come to my garden, my sister, my spouse; I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk.

The Beloved

(To His Friends)

Eat, O friends! Drink, yes, drink deeply, O beloved ones!

The Shulamite's Troubled Evening,

² I sleep, but my heart is awake; it is the voice of my beloved! He knocks, saying, Open for me, my sister, my love, my dove, my perfect one; For my head is covered with dew, my locks with the drops of the night.

³ I have taken off my robe; How can I put it on again? I have washed my feet; How can I defile them?

⁴ My beloved put his hand by the latch of the door, and my heart yearned for him.

⁵ I arose to open for my beloved, and my hands dripped with myrrh, my fingers with liquid myrrh, On the handles of the lock.

⁶ I opened for my beloved, but my beloved had turned away and was gone. My heart leaped up when he spoke. I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON vs 5

⁷The watchmen who went about the city found me. They struck me, they wounded me; The keepers of the walls took my veil away from me.

⁸I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, If you find my beloved, That you tell him I am lovesick!

The Daughters of Jerusalem,
