

THE SONG OF SOLOMON vs 7

KJV-lite™ VERSES

www.ilibros.net/KJV-lite.html

This book: has had several different titles, in Hebrew: the Song of Songs, meaning, the greatest Song, in English, The Song of Solomon identifying his author; and in Roman Latin, the Canticles. Some say this song is about Solomon's favorite wife, and there is no reason not to ascribe it to him; others suggest the book is merely an allegory; with fictional characters describing heavenly truths. Perhaps it is both. The song describes the love Solomon has for a Shulamite woman, the king comes in disguise to her family vineyard, he wins her heart, and makes her his bride. It definitely is a sexy song, so see what you learn from it.

Expressions of Praise,

¹ How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! The curves of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

The Beloved,

² Your navel is a rounded goblet; It lacks no blended beverage. your waist is a heap of wheat set about with lilies.

³ Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

⁴ Your neck is like an ivory tower, your eyes like the pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath Rabbim. Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon tha looks toward Damascus.

⁵ Your head crowns you like Mount Carmel, and the hair of your head is like purple; a king is held captive by your tresses.

⁶ How fair and how pleasant you are, O love, with your delights!

⁷ This stature of yours is like a palm tree, and your breasts like its clusters.

⁸ I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of its branches. Let now your breasts be like clusters of the vine, the fragrance of your breath like apples.

⁹ And the roof of your mouth like the best wine.

The Shulamite,

The wine goes down smoothly for my beloved, moving gently the lips of sleepers.

¹⁰ I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.

¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us go forth to the field; let us lodge in the villages.

¹² Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine has budded, whether the grape blossoms are open, and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.

¹³ The mandrakes give off a fragrance, and at our gates are pleasant fruits, All manner, new and old, which I have laid up for you, my beloved.
