TITUS was a gentile by birth, who came to faith through the ministry of Paul; though not mentioned by name, Titus was in the group that accompanied Paul to Jerusalem at the time of what is referred to as the apostolic council strangely chaired by James – the brother of Jesus, who never followed Jesus during his earthly 3.5 years ministry; recorded in ACTS 15:2.

¹ Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey and be ready for every good work,

² slander no one, avoid fighting, but equitable, showing gentle strength to all people.

³ For we also were once foolish, disobedient, deceived,

enslaved by strong desires to various pleasures,

living in malice and envy; hateful, and detesting one another.

⁴ But when the kindness of God our Savior and His love for mankind, appeared,

⁵ He saved us not by works of rightness that we did, but according to His mercy, through the washing of a new birth, and renewal of the Holy Spirit;

⁶ He poured out His Spirit on us generously through Jesus Christ our Savior;

⁷ that having been justified by His grace, we may become heirs with the hope of eternal life / He has judiciously declared us not guilty, by His grace.

⁸ You can trust this saying:

and concerning these things I want you to insist on these things , that those who have believed in God might be careful to devote themselves to good works. These are good and profitable for everyone.

⁹ But avoid foolish debates, and genealogies, and arguments, and disputes related to the law; for they are unprofitable and useless.

¹⁰ Reject a divisive person after a first and second warning;

¹¹ knowing that such is twisted and has gone off the track, sinning he condemns himself.
